Eigenmann & Veronelli signs an exclusive distribution agreement with Maycos for its Beauty & Personal Care portfolio in Italy

Pero (MI), Italy, 13th February 2026 – Eigenmann & Veronelli Group (“EV Group”), Italy’s leading and internationally oriented distributor of specialty chemicals and ingredients, announces today the signing of an exclusive distribution agreement with Maycos Italiana for its Beauty & Personal Care ingredients portfolio, covering skin care and hair care applications in Italy.

Under the terms of the agreement, EV will be responsible for managing distribution throughout Italy and the Republic of San Marino for a portfolio that offers formulators a broad range of high-performance solutions — from next-generation emulsifiers and natural emollients to plant-based amino acid surfactants.

This agreement strengthens Maycos’ distribution strategy, while supporting EV’s ambition to deliver innovative, sustainable and high-value solutions to Beauty & Personal Care industry partners in Italy.

Michele Gregis, Head of Sales & Marketing at Maycos Italiana, said:

“Partnering with EV represents an important step in strengthening Maycos’ brand positioning within the Italian Beauty & Personal Care market. EV’s established presence, combined with strong formulation expertise and application-driven customer support, enables us to bring our portfolio closer to formulators in a highly effective and technically meaningful way. Through this collaboration, we aim not only to expand our market reach, but also to enhance the perception of Maycos as a reliable partner for high-performance, sustainable and innovation-led solutions. By working closely with EV’s technical and commercial teams, we are confident in our ability to support customers with tailored formulations, robust application know-how and consistent value creation across skin care and hair care applications.”

Nicola Garuccio, Business Unit Manager Beauty & Personal Care at EV Group, comments:

“We are pleased that Maycos has selected EV as its exclusive distributor for its Beauty & Personal Care solutions. This partnership broadens our portfolio and reinforces our capacity to serve the market with innovative and sustainable technologies. Building on our consolidated presence and proven expertise, we remain committed to supporting our customers with the high-quality innovation, technical competence and service required to meet the evolving needs of the Beauty & Personal Care industry.”
